MIRAVAL THE RED SEA

ABOUT: Miraval The Red Sea is a transformative wellness retreat featuring 180 sustainably designed guestrooms and suites, including 20 private villas. As the Miraval brand's first full-scale international resort, it empowers guests to cultivate a life in balance through the practice of mindfulness.

Spanning over three million square feet (310,000 square meters) of pristine coastline, the resort brings the acclaimed Miraval philosophy to the shores of Saudi Arabia, offering imaginative, compassionate, and soul-stirring experiences led by expert Miraval specialists. Every element, from the immersive activities to the digitally mindful environment, is curated to harmonize with the surrounding landscape of beaches, lagoons, and dunes.

Located on Shura Island, the centerpiece of The Red Sea destination, Miraval The Red Sea is also home to sweeping views and access to an 18-hole championship golf course.

The resort is easily accessible by car or air via Red Sea International Airport (RSI).

HISTORY:

Founded in 1995, Miraval introduced a visionary approach to wellness rooted in the belief that life becomes more meaningful when the physical, emotional, and spiritual aspects of wellbeing are in balance. What began as a trailblazing destination in the Sonoran Desert has evolved into a global pioneer for mindful luxury and transformative experiences.

Miraval The Red Sea carries this legacy forward, created with intention and shaped by its extraordinary location on Shura Island. Here, individuals and groups are invited to disconnect from distraction and reconnect with themselves, each other, and the natural world. Mindfulness is not simply an offering, it is the foundation of every journey.

Miraval has redefined modern wellness through its expansive menu of experiences, including immersive activities, integrative therapies, nourishing cuisine, and award-winning spa services.

For three decades, Miraval has been honored by the world's most trusted publications, including Travel + Leisure, Condé Nast Traveler, The New York Times, Bloomberg, and The Wall Street Journal. Recent accolades include the Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards, Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards, and World Spa Awards.

Now, Miraval brings balance, presence, and transformation to the shores of the Red Sea, extending its mission to new corners of the world and offering accessible, real-life wellbeing for individuals and communities seeking meaningful rejuvenation and connection.

The hotel designs refer to Shura Island as a 'Coral Bloom' and take inspiration from the region's thriving coral reefs and native flowers. Interiors by the globally renowned Rockwell Group mimic the natural world in form and texture, giving each residence an understated elegance imbued with nature's opulence.

The Red Sea is home to one of the largest and most biologically diverse barrier reef systems on the planet. Spanning 28,000 square kilometers, this region features an archipelago of more than 90 untouched islands, dormant volcanoes, sweeping desert dunes, mountain canyons, and culturally rich heritage sites.

As sunlight dances across rugged peaks and golden sands, a world of elegance and tranquility unfolds, where modern luxury meets natural beauty.
